

GPERS Graphic Organizer

Geography

The study of the earth and its features; the physical characteristics, environments and the surface features of an area.

Politics

The study of government; how laws are made, who makes them, and who enforces them; the system of government.

Economics

Science that deals with the production and distribution and consumption of goods and services; how people make a living and acquire the things they need.

Religion

How a society views life after death; what moral beliefs affect the lives of the people.

Society

The food, clothing and shelter used by a group of people; social classes, educational practices and leisure activities i.e. sports, art, dance, music, etc. that are common in the group.