the 56th winning streak is something I'm very proud of although I never talk about it with the players. We just concentrate on winning one game at a time, whether it is home or away. We don't dwell on it or mention it at all and just hope that the other team is thinking about it.”

Despite victory at home, HC women’s basketball could not carry their winnings to Bethlehem, PA home of the Lehigh Mountain Hawks. At Stabler Arena Saturday, Jan. 19 the Crusaders lost 84-75 in double overtime.

Beginning the game with tremendous force, the Hawks opened with five three pointers in 4:51 to jump out to a 15-4 lead. HC fought back and by halftime lead the game 32-26. With four minutes of the second half gone, Lehigh managed a 19-4 run and increased their score over the Crusaders 63-58. The Crusaders racking up 17 points, all coming in the second half.

HC hosted the Raiders Wednesday night at the Hart Center. You can listen and view all the action on WCHC 88.1.

The Crusaders’ rebounding played an important role in defeating the Raiders as well. Campbell lead HC in rebounds snagging 10, while Fontana took nine and junior guard Liz O’Connor had seven.

Strong efforts by Raider guard Allison Lipinski and forward Malissa Burke did not prove effective against the prevailing Cross. At the end of the first half, the Crusaders had outscored Colgate by the significant margin of 12-4.

Senior guard Amanda Abraham, sophomore forward Mary Rose Campbell and freshman guard Kristin Popovics had seven.

HC senior guard Jeanette Paukert increased their score over the Crusaders 63-58. The Crusaders racking up 17 points, all coming in the second half.

HC hosted the Raiders Wednesday night at the Hart Center. You can listen and view all the action on WCHC 88.1.

The Crusaders’ rebounding played an important role in defeating the Raiders as well. Campbell lead HC in rebounds snagging 10, while Fontana took nine and junior guard Liz O’Connor had seven.

Strong efforts by Raider guard Allison Lipinski and forward Malissa Burke did not prove effective against the prevailing Cross. At the end of the first half, the Crusaders had outscored Colgate by the significant margin of 12-4.

Senior guard Amanda Abraham, sophomore forward Mary Rose Campbell and freshman guard Kristin Popovics had seven.

HC senior guard Jeanette Paukert increased their score over the Crusaders 63-58. The Crusaders racking up 17 points, all coming in the second half.