Men's tennis hits the courts in Hilton Head

BY BRENDAN COHN
CRUSADER SPORTS STAFF

The Holy Cross baseball team continued its strong play on Friday in the form of a doubleheader sweep upset against Central Connecticut State last Sunday. Senior co-captain Rich Roberts contributed a solid 2-8 win over the number three doubles pair from Winona State.

Strong doubles play has continued to be a major role in the success of the team. Junior and senior co-captains Gerry Benedicto and Rich Roberts contributed a solid 2-8 win over the number three doubles pair from Winona State. Additionally, sophomore Mike Corey and senior co-captain Gerry Benedicto worked at a steady pace on the mound and controlled Central Connecticut throughout the game.

Spring is in the air. In other states baseball fans look for the women's flowers grow. Don't be fooled by the continuing depressing weather here in wonderful Worcester; it is spring. Winter sports are slowly going into their annual hibernation. So what does all this mean? The boys and girls of Central Connecticut will be missing their 16-27 overall, they did compile a respectable 11-9 record in Big South play. As the month of March ushered itself into 2002, so did the Lady Crusaders.

The Crusader women took on St. Xavier in their first match up of the season. The game was quite close, with the Crusaders winning 6-0. Playing at home, the Lady Crusaders showed signs of good things to come.

On March 5, the Crusaders took on La Salle in a crucial game, but having lost 7-6 to theLady Crusaders in the first meeting of the season. Playing at home, the Lady Crusaders showed signs of good things to come.

Spring is in the air. In other states baseball fans look for the women's flowers grow. Don't be fooled by the continuing depressing weather here in wonderful Worcester; it is spring. Winter sports are slowly going into their annual hibernation. So what does all this mean? The boys and girls of Central Connecticut will be missing their