Seniors live it up at Pub Night this past Tuesday. Good times were had by all involved.

Program.

Admission $6 with college ID.

20th century. Exhibit runs through January 6th.

Modernism and Abstraction paintings from the Washington. The paintings are a collection of Habitat for Humanity, Inc., will be present at the ceremony. Sponsored by:

president and founder of Habitat for Humanity,

Millard Fuller, and the Builders Association of Central Massagan Park, Worcester, MA. Come witness the Habitat House Groundbreaking: 10:45 A.M.

Friday, October 5

Habitat House Groundbreaking: 10:45 A.M.

Grove Street, Opposite Indian Lake and Morgan Park, Worcester, MA. Come witness the first step in construction as Holy Cross volunteers prepare to build a house. Millard Fuller, president and founder of Habitat for Humanity, will be present at the ceremony. Sponsored by: Greater Worcester Habitat for Humanity, Inc., the Holy Cross Chapter of Habitat for Humanity and the Builders Association of Central Massachusetts.

Friday, October 5 - Wednesday, October 10

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola

Sponsored by: Chaplain’s Office

Saturday, October 6

Men’s Soccer vs. Colgate, 3 P.M., Hart Soccer Field

Sunday, October 7

Field Hockey vs. Dartmouth, 1 P.M., Hart Center Astroturf Field

Art Exhibit: the Worcester Art Museum will be hosting an exhibit of 70 rarely-lent from Washington. The paintings are a collection of Modernism and Abstraction paintings from the 20th century. Exhibit runs through January 6th. Admission $6 with college ID.

Tuesday, October 9

Open Forum Meeting: MASS RID. 6 P.M. - 8 P.M., Hogan 305. Sponsored by Deaf Studies Program.

WCHC 88.1

Worcester’s Only

Alternative Source

Roommate-rating quiz

Roommate, page 12

The Quiz

When your roommate wakes up in the morning, the first thing he says to you is,

a) “Good morning!”

b) “Yawn!” What’s for breakfast?

c) “Buuuuurrrrrp!”

d) “Oh man! I had a horrible nightmare that my roommate was — Aaaaaaahhh!! It wasn’t a dream!”

At meals, your roommate

a) Eats neatly and makes pleasant conversation

b) Eats neatly but remains mostly quiet

c) Refuses food and stares at you venomously the entire time

d) Throws his food all over you and yells obsequies at the top of his lungs until he is forcefully removed from the cafeteria

With your other friends, your roommate

a) Makes pleasant conversation and gets along well

b) Doesn’t talk much, but gets along well.

c) Exchanges verbal abuse

d) Whispers suggestive phrases and repeatedly rubs up against them

Your roommate dresses

a) Appropriately and tastefully most of the time, but sometimes...

b) Like a dirty, dirty tramp

c) You are not sure, as you have never seen your roommate clothed

d) Makes an effort to be quiet but occasionally does something distracting

Your roommate is

a) Usually the center of attention or deeply involved in the goings on

b) Sometimes the center of attention but usually involved in what’s going on

c) Usually not in attendance

d) Usually naked and on fire

As far as alcohol is concerned, your roommate

a) Never drinks or knows their limit when they do

b) Tends to drink a little too heavy

c) Gets completely trashed with startling regularity

d) Is drunk now

When your roommate comes in after you are in bed

a) Is so quiet you barely, if ever, notice

b) Tries hard to be quiet but occasionally wakes you up

c) Never makes any effort to be quiet and often seems to be deliberately trying to wake you up

d) Pukes all over you

When your roommate accidentally walks in while you are making out with your significant other he

a) Immediately turns and exits

b) Stands around awkwardly for a few seconds then leaves

c) Grabs a chair, sits down and stairs opened mouthed at you

d) Asks if you want his help

Hmm… Looks like I ran a little long again. No problem, I’ll just continue it next issue. So, make sure you save your responses and next week you’ll get the last set of questions and a chance to see where your roommate landed on the score chart.

For recreation, your roommate

a) Hangs out with friends, goes to a movie, plays sports, or gets involved in other healthy activities for young adults

b) Watches TV, plays video games, or otherwise sits by himself

c) Makes a list of all the people he doesn’t like

d) Has knife fights with drunken hobos in your room

At a party, your roommate is

a) Usually the center of attention or deeply involved in the goings on

b) Sometimes the center of attention but usually involved in what’s going on

c) Usually not in attendance

d) Usually naked and on fire

When your roommate accidentally walks in while you are making out with your significant other he

a) Immediately turns and exits

b) Stands around awkwardly for a few seconds then leaves

c) Grabs a chair, sits down and stairs opened mouthed at you

d) Asks if you want his help

Interested in writing for Features?

Want to cover arts and entertainment on campus?

Then e-mail us at Crusader@holycross.edu

Substantial Rewards Provided for Articles Submitted in a Timely Fashion. Seriously.