CALL FOR PAPERS

CTSA CONVENTION, JUNE 7-10, 2000, MILWAUKEE, WI

Theme: Missio Ad Gentes

This is a Call for papers for the CTSA 2001 convention. There should be ten open places on the convention program for sessions initiated by CTSA members (see the reverse side of this page for a description of the convention structure). Sessions may include presentation of a paper or papers, a panel, or a workshop format. Each session should have a Convener or Moderator who will call the meeting to order, introduce the participants, keep time, and draw up a report for the Proceedings.

PROPOSALS SHOULD BE PRESENTED ON ONE PAGE, SINGLE SPACED. THEY SHOULD INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IN THIS ORDER.

1. Name, address, phone number, fax, email address of the Convener of the session (the person responsible for planning and organizing it).

2. General topic.

3. Precise title of the session (brief, for it to be listed in the program).

4. Format of the session. Examples:
   paper and open discussion
   paper, response and open discussion
   two papers and open discussion
   panel of four with fifteen minutes of input each and open discussion

Interactive participation with the members should be structured into the proposal.

5. Names of the presenters, respondents, panelists and their institutional affiliation. Please list full names as they are to appear on the program.

6. A brief 100-150 word description of the content, rationale and relevance of the session. Indicate in a general way the background literature to which the session will refer, or the key themes, figures, texts to be discussed. Proposals will not be judged on the basis of their being consonant with the theme of the convention, though applicants are encouraged to take this into account.

SUBMIT FIVE (5) COPIES OF THIS ONE PAGE PROPOSAL

Send to: Peter C. Phan, School of Religious Studies, Catholic University of America, 620 Michigan Avenue NE, Washington, DC 20064
DEADLINE: MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2000