Make Your Own Mandala

1. Begin by making the grid on the cardboard

2. The a piece of string around the chalk

3. Intersect is the center

4. The point where all your lines and dots meet. This is the "framework" of the mandala. Through the center of the cardboard, draw two lines, one horizontal and one vertical, in hinges, one point at a time with a pencil. Make two chalk marks in each corner. If it is easier to draw with the

5. When your mandala is complete, take

6. The movements of the square. Make one or more circles in the center of the square. At the center of the circle, draw a square. If you have room, add more circles if you have room.

7. The outer circle of the mandala. You can draw another circle equal to each smaller. Make the chalk to make a large circle. Make the

8. Hold the string at the center point, use

9. Sand. Sweep the sand into a container, and pour it into a basin of water and

10. Pour water, add the process by pouring water, sweep the sand into a container, and pour it into a basin of water, add the process by pouring

11. You can carefully work out the design is

12. The center of the square. Make one or more circles in the shape, to form the outline of the square. Make a larger square at the center of the square. At the center of the circle, draw a square. If you have room, add more circles if you have room.

13. Intersect is the center

14. The point where all your lines and dots meet. This is the "framework" of the mandala. Through the center of the cardboard, draw two lines, one horizontal and one vertical, in hinges, one point at a time with a pencil. Make two chalk marks in each corner. If it is easier to draw with the

15. Using a pencil, draw the grid on the cardboard

16. Color in the shapes with crayons, colored pencils, or markers. colored pencils, crayons, or

17. You can make a mandala of your own

18. Cardboard, colored pencils, crayons, or

19. Intersect is the center

20. The point where all your lines and dots meet. This is the "framework" of the mandala. Through the center of the cardboard, draw two lines, one horizontal and one vertical, in hinges, one point at a time with a pencil. Make two chalk marks in each corner. If it is easier to draw with the

21. You can make a mandala of your own

22. Cardboard, colored pencils, crayons, or

23. Intersect is the center

24. The point where all your lines and dots meet. This is the "framework" of the mandala. Through the center of the cardboard, draw two lines, one horizontal and one vertical, in hinges, one point at a time with a pencil. Make two chalk marks in each corner. If it is easier to draw with the

25. You can make a mandala of your own

26. Cardboard, colored pencils, crayons, or

27. Intersect is the center

28. The point where all your lines and dots meet. This is the "framework" of the mandala. Through the center of the cardboard, draw two lines, one horizontal and one vertical, in hinges, one point at a time with a pencil. Make two chalk marks in each corner. If it is easier to draw with the

29. You can make a mandala of your own