Buddhas, or “enlightened persons,” can be identified by a cranial protuberance, elongated earlobes and a tuft of hair between their eyebrows. Siddhartha Gautama, often referred to as the Buddha or Buddha Shakyamuni, is the historical Buddha.

Bodhisattvas
Bodhisattvas are awakened beings who aspire to attain enlightenment and help others achieve it. They can be male or female and are portrayed adorned with crowns and jewelry.

Tantric Deities
Numerous forms of deities are described in religious texts called tantras. These deities personify various enlightened qualities and can have many heads, arms, and legs, all of which symbolize their many abilities.
Himalayan art not only depicts deities but also portraits of accomplished religious teachers (lamas), the Buddha’s original disciples (arhats), and spiritually accomplished tantric masters (mahasiddhas).

WRATHFUL DEITIES
Recognized by flaming hair, bulging eyes, fangs and, garlands of severed heads, these deities serve as protectors of Buddhist teachings.

FEMALE DEITIES
Bodhisattvas and tantric deities can be depicted in female form. Just like their male counterparts they embody enlightened qualities and can be both peaceful and wrathful in appearance.

HUMANS
Himalayan art not only depicts deities but also portraits of accomplished religious teachers (lamas), the Buddha’s original disciples (arhats), and spiritually accomplished tantric masters (mahasiddhas).
POSTURES

ROYAL EASE
This relaxed posture is commonly associated with regal leisure.

STANDING
This posture features a triple-bend of the body at the knee, hip, and waist.

LOTUS
Also known as vajra position, this posture is associated with meditation.

ARCHER/HUNTER’S STANCE

DANCING
TOUCHING THE EARTH
This is the gesture of the Buddha calling the earth to witness his enlightenment.

GRANTING WISHES AND BLESSINGS
The right hand is extended in a giving gesture.

TEACHING
The hands form the shape of a wheel, symbolizing the “turning of the wheel of dharma,” a reference to teaching the Buddha’s doctrine.

DO NOT FEAR (PROTECTION)

PRAYER (REVERENCE)

TANTRIC UNITY
This gesture is that of embracing a consort, and is symbolic of bringing together two aspects of enlightenment, wisdom and method.

CONTEMPLATION
A bell is often paired with the vajra and is another implement used in tantric practices and an attribute of tantric masters and deities. It generally symbolizes wisdom, the feminine aspect of enlightenment, and its ringing is the sound of emptiness.

A vajra is a ritual scepter, an implement used in tantric practices, and an attribute of tantric masters and deities. It generally symbolizes method, the male aspect of enlightenment.

This implement is used in tantric rituals and is also an attribute of wrathful deities. It symbolizes cutting through ignorance, desire, and hatred, the three “root poisons” that perpetuate the cycle of birth, death, and rebirth.

An implement used in tantric practices, the two halves symbolize the union of two aspects of enlightenment. When paired with a bell, it represents the male aspect of enlightenment and its drumming is the sound of the bliss of realizing the true nature of reality. Large hand drums are used in the Tibetan practice of “cutting the ego.” Their sound represents impermanence.

This instrument is used in tantric rituals performed in charnel, or funerary, grounds and is played as an offering to wrathful deities. Its sound is said to be pleasing to wrathful deities but terrifying to evil spirits.
SKULL CUP
A skull cup is an attribute of tantric deities and is usually paired with a curved knife. It can symbolize a mind filled with the bliss of realizing the true nature of reality.

CURVED KNIFE
This weapon is an attribute of tantric deities and is usually paired with a skull cup. When held by female deities, it symbolizes wisdom’s destruction of all obstacles to enlightenment. When held by male deities, it represents the method aspect of enlightenment.

SEVEN OFFERINGS
These seven offerings are symbolic representations of the seven welcoming gifts given to guests in ancient India. They are presented to deities and can include water, flowers, incense, light, perfume, food, and music.

STUPA
Stupas were originally burial mounds housing relics of the Buddha. They symbolize the “mind of the buddha,” attained at complete enlightenment.

TANTRIC STAFF
An attribute of tantric deities, this staff represents the union of two aspects of enlightenment. When held by a male deity, it symbolizes his female consort as wisdom, and when held by a female deity, it represents her male consort as method.
