

People of Color, African and Native American, Worcester County 1790

© 1996, Thomas L. Doughton

The following is compiled from the MS 1790 Census for Worcester County, here reproducing information on people of color, Native Americans and African Americans, living in Worcester County. More than 78 percent of the County's people of color were living in independent households by 1790, many others servants, often employed by former owners, in white households.
